

Colne Valley Youth Orchestra News

Date: July 1 2011

CVYO orchestrates reunion concert for 30th birthday!

The Colne Valley Youth Orchestra is hoping to track down old members to join it for a special 30th anniversary concert and party.

The orchestra is preparing to mark its special birthday with a Gala Concert at the Moot Hall on September 4 and wants as many former members to join in as possible.

Musical Director, Nigel Hildreth, who was recently awarded an MBE in the Queen's Birthday Honours, explained: "This is such a special year for the orchestra and we hope as many former members from across the years can join us as possible. It will be a fantastic way to mark our special anniversary and to mark the orchestra's amazing achievements over three decades."

The orchestra is also delighted to announce that it has attracted two main sponsors to support its 30th anniversary concert in the form of Palladian Press and Whittle & Co Chartered Accountants. Nigel added: "It's great to have two long-established local firms getting behind us to help us put on this event and we are enormously grateful for their support."

Any former member who would like to join in the concert should email CVYO Chairman David Bobby at David Bobby david.bobby@btinternet.com.

Tickets for the special event which includes an after concert party at the Sixth Form College, Colchester, are also now on sale at £10, £5 and £25 for a family ticket. They can be reserved by emailing Jenny Spillane on jenny.spillane@btconnect.com

For further information about Colne Valley Youth Orchestra news and events contact our Communications Manager, Christine Garrington on 01206 396469 christine.garrington@btinternet.com