Music and strawberries make for special concert

Concert goers will get more than just a fantastic programme of music when they attend the Colne Valley Youth Orchestra annual Strawberry Tea Concert.

The special concert, which sees the Orchestra's Main and Training Orchestras join forces to entertain family, friends and supporters of the orchestra, will include not just a fabulous programme of popular classics and tunes, but will be followed by strawberries and cream.

The event, which is part of the orchestra's 30th Anniversary Celebrations, sees musicians ranging in ages from 7-17 playing a fun programme that includes the heme from Match of the Day, a Jamaican Rumba, Dance of the Hours and Imagine to name but a few.

Musical Director of the Training Orchestra, Chris Lund, said: "At this special annual event all our members from the youngest to the oldest come together, which helps develop a close relationship between them and especially helps the young ones grow in confidence. The concert is a lot of fun and one of our favourite events of the year."

This year's Strawberry Tea Concert is being held at the Colchester Sixth Form College. All are welcome.
